What an incredible Valentine's Day this year in Lynbrook USA. Mayor William Hendrick was honored to hold the 1st Annual Valentine's Day Celebration and Renewal of Vows Ceremony at the Lynbrook Library. Many couples came down to share in this special occasion, and renew their vows with Mayor Hendrick officiating the ceremony. Mayor Hendrick said, "This Valentine's Day will go down as my personal favorite of all time and I wish these couples continued love, happiness, and blessings".

"With Valentine's Day upon us, this is the perfect time of the year for couples to renew their marriage vows as well as proclaim their love for one another. It is an honor for me to be here, with you, celebrating our Village's 1st Annual Valentine's Day Celebration and Vow Renewal Ceremony. In this room I see love, family, memories, traditions, blessings, and happily ever after's I am just overjoyed to have the honor to officiate our vow renewal's this evening" said Lynbrook Mayor William Hendrick.
