

“The lockers give me a safe place to leave my bicycle at the station on days when I don’t want to take my car. They are conveniently located directly next to the station, so it is easy to just lock the bike up and go.”

—Philip K., Plainview

Ride and relax.

Riding a bicycle is a great way to commute. Fresh air, exercise and less time wasted sitting in traffic are just a few of the benefits bicycle commuters enjoy.

Whether you already cycle to work or you are thinking about saddling up, Long Island's Bicycle Locker Program can make your commute easier and keep your bicycle safe and secure while you're away.

Secure and Go

The Bicycle Locker Program lets you store your bicycle in a secure and completely enclosed locker available at the Long Island Rail Road (LIRR) stations listed on the right. With lockers so close to transit stations, it's easy for commuters to store, lock and go to work.

Affordable Rates

Lockers are affordably priced to make cycling a convenient and cost-effective alternative to driving and to parking a car.

Annual rental fee: $60

One-time key deposit: $40

(Refundable upon surrendering key)

Convenient Locations

Completely enclosed and secure bicycle lockers are conveniently located at the following LIRR stations:

- Central Islip
- Cold Spring Harbor
- Copiague
- East Northport
- Farmingdale
- Greenlawn
- Greenport
- Hicksville
- Huntington Station
